

Now is your chance to make sure that young people have a safe and healthy start to their working lives, and to promote risk awareness and risk prevention in enterprises, schools and colleges. Once you sign up to the Charter, using the electronic form, you will receive a personalised certificate in recognition of your commitment to improving health and safety for those at work or building up awareness of those still too young to work.

Read more